§ 1 Scope

1. These General Terms and Conditions (hereinafter "GTC") apply to and govern the ordering, procurement and download of products or services from the arvato online store and, where applicable, the physical delivery of the products by arvato and each "contract of sale" (if any) created pursuant to these GTC as described in §3 of these GTC.
2. These GTC of arvato contain the entire understanding between the parties hereto with respect to the matters covered herein, and supersede all prior and contemporaneous oral and written communications.
3. Terms and conditions of the customer will not be deemed to bind the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof unless arvato has expressly agreed thereto in a specific case in a writing which specifically refers to these GTC, stating it is intended to be a modification of the GTC, and is signed by a duly authorized representative of arvato. 2

§ 2 Object of the Agreement

arvato offers to facilitate the procurement of licenses for, and the download and/or physical delivery of, those products then listed on the applicable arvato website as available through the arvato online store. Customers can order products and services over the Internet. When ordering over the Internet, the customer may be allowed by arvato to choose whether to download the respective software product (hereinafter “download”) or whether to have it physically delivered to the customer (hereinafter “physical delivery”).

§ 3 Creating an Agreement

The customer’s order shall constitute an offer to arvato to enter into a contract of sale. The customer will receive a confirmation of receipt of the order by e-mail. This e-mail shall not be deemed as acceptance of the offer, but shall merely serve to inform the customer. A contract of sale shall be created only when arvato ships the product ordered to the customer or makes it available for download.

§ 4 Delivery

1. Physical delivery of the product, if requested pursuant to a customer order accepted by arvato, shall be made to the shipping address provided by the customer. Details of the delivery shall be non-binding unless there is a binding promise of a specific delivery date which has been expressly agreed to by arvato in a specific case in a writing which specifically refers to these terms and conditions and is signed by a duly authorized representative of arvato.
2. arvato shall be entitled to make partial deliveries to the extent reasonable under the circumstances. Any additional shipping costs incurred as a result shall be borne by arvato.
3. If delivery is delayed due to reasons for which the customer is solely or primarily responsible, or if delivery is temporarily impossible due to reasons for which neither arvato nor the customer is responsible, then the agreed delivery period (if any) shall be extended for as long as such reasons prevail plus the period of time needed to resume delivery. arvato shall notify the customer of such delays.
4. As regards physical delivery of the product, the risk shall pass to the customer once the product is handed to the person/entity engaged to perform the shipping of the product.
5. With respect to a software product which is downloaded from the arvato online store, the risk shall pass to the customer when the software leaves arvato’s sphere of influence (i.e. its server).
6. arvato shall use reasonable efforts to make available to customer all software products ordered through customer orders placed with arvato through the arvato online store and for which a contract of sale is created pursuant to these GTC as described in §3 of these GTC. arvato shall inform customer if a product which customer attempts to order is not available, in which case (notwithstanding any other provision to the contrary) no “contract for sale” is made for such product, arvato shall have no further obligation to customer with respect to such product and arvato shall refund any payments that the customer has already made for such product in connection with the unfulfilled order.

§ 5 Ownership; Return of Products

1. The software products which may be ordered, procured, and/or downloaded through the use of the arvato online store are licensed and not sold to those customers who download such software products, or have such software products delivered to them, pursuant to these GTC. All such software products, including without limitation, all rights to patents, copyrights, trademarks, trade secrets and any other intellectual property right inherent therein or appurtenant thereto, in all media now known or hereinafter developed, are (and shall at all times remain) the sole and exclusive property of arvato and/or the applicable licensor(s) of such products. The products include certain computer software which is copyrighted by arvato and/or the applicable licensor(s) of such software products. If software products are recalled in this way, as of the date of arvato's request for the deletion and/or return of the software products, you and any other Licensee will no longer be an authorized user(s) of the software products and it is your responsibility to return the software products (if requested by arvato) and delete all copies of the software products from your computer and the computer(s) of any other licensee (without the retention of any copies of the same) and to ensure that such software products are not used after the date of such request in any way by you or any other Licensee. In the event of payment by credit card, arvato shall charge the purchase price to the credit card account provided by you prior to allowing download of the software product or delivering the software product, and is hereby authorized to charge any applicable Taxes to the credit card. In the event of payment against invoice or check, the software product shall be delivered following receipt of payment of, the purchase price (and any Taxes included on the invoice for (or any invoice provided with the invoice for) the purchase price) in arvato's bank account and you will pay any invoice provided by arvato for any Taxes by not later than 30 days after your receipt of such invoice.

5. If payment is not received by arvato from your credit card issuer or its agents or your credit card issuer seeks return of payments previously made to arvato, you agree to pay all amounts due upon demand by arvato. If you or another Licensee fails to pay any amounts due pursuant to these GTC by their due date, without limitation of other rights and remedies, at arvato's request, you shall pay late charges per month of one and one half percent (1.5%), or the maximum permitted under applicable law, whichever is less, together with all of arvato's expenses and collection costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred in enforcing the payment obligation.
